FACTS ABOUT TEA SERIES-No. 5

What 'Orange Pekoe' Means

Many buyers of tea have come to ask for 'Orange Pekoe' believing that it signifies fine quality. This is not, however, necesarrily the case. In the trade 'Orange Pekoe' is only a name given to the first leaf believais only a name given to the first leaf believais only a name given to the first leaf believais only a name given to the first leaf believais only a name given to the first leaf believabush. An 'Orange Pekoe' leaf grown at a light elevation usually possesses a very fine flavour. If, however, the plant is grown at a low elevation, it may still be 'Orange Pekoe' but also be of very poor quality. The consumer's only safeguard is to buy a tea of recognized_odness. High grown 'Orange Pekoes' comprise a large part of every blend of "SALADA" and give to "SALADA" its unequalled flavour.
